

A black and white line drawing of a garden scene. In the center, a rectangular sign with a white background and a black border contains the text "HELLO MAY" in a bold, sans-serif font. The sign is surrounded by various flowers: tulips, daisies, and lilies. The tulips are in various stages of bloom, some fully open and some as buds. The daisies have many small petals and a central disk. The lilies are large and trumpet-shaped, with prominent stamens. The background is filled with the outlines of many more flowers and leaves, creating a dense garden atmosphere.
